Plan Your Trip to the Gym

IMPORTANT: Everybody must make a reservation to be in the gym if you are attending on a weeknight. If you're attending during times other than weeknights, please still read through to the end.

- A reservation is different than registering for the competition.
- Registering for the competition does not reserve a spot for you in the gym
- Competitors and spectators alike must make reservations.

Reservations & Open Climbing

- What: Reservations are required during our peak hours so that we can control capacity as a COVID precaution.
- Who needs a reservation: Anybody who is in the gym during our reservation times. This includes competitors, spectators, parents, and coaches. Anybody in the building must also have a facility waiver up-to-date. If you have not been here since August 2020, you will need an updated waiver.
- How: Make your reservation here (scroll to the bottom, select the day you plan to attend, and the participant types. Members still must reserve; select: "member". Competitors are charged $10 admission.
- When is a reservation required?

Monday – Friday	Open Climbing: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 6am – 4pm Reservations req: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 4:30pm – 6:30pm • 6:45pm – 8:45pm
Saturday	Open Climbing all day: 8am – 8pm
Sunday	Open Climbing all day: 10am – 8pm

The gym closes on weekdays from 4pm – 4:30pm and 6:30pm – 6:45pm for cleaning. After 8:45pm on weeknights, we do not close the gym. We simply roll into "open climbing" until we close at 11pm.

If you don't arrive within the first 15 minutes of your reservation time, you forfeit your reservation to anybody who is waiting to climb "standby"

- About Open Climbing:
 - Open climbing is still subject to a limited facility capacity. If our facility is at capacity, we implement a "one-in, one-out" policy, in which we admit those who are waiting entrance as others leave.
 - We typically move into "one-in, one-out" on Saturday and Sunday afternoons. It is rare that those waiting must wait for longer than 15-20 minutes, although we can make no guarantees.

Want avoid the crowds? Avoid making reservations?

We are slowest:

- Weekdays before 4pm
- Saturday mornings before 10am

Additionally, I will open the gym early on Sunday, 12/13, from 8am – 10am for competitors and their parents/coaches only. Please reserve ahead of time, which will make for quicker entry.

Note that the weight area (including the Moonboard and campus boards) will not be available from 9am-10am, as it will be cleaned during this time.

FAQs:

- Can I reserve both the 4:30 and the 6:45 time slot on the same day?
 - Yes, but remember a few things:
 - We close for cleaning between sessions, and everybody (even competitors) must leave during those times: 4pm-4:30pm and 6:30pm-6:45pm, and must check-in again when they re-enter the building
 - If you don't arrive within the first 15 minutes of your timeslot, your reservation is given to somebody who is waiting on standby.
 - The 6:45pm timeslot rolls into open climbing after two hours, so if it's more time you're looking for, we recommend you book the 6:45pm time. You won't be required to leave until we close at 11pm.
- What if I forget to make a reservation on one of the weeknight timeslots?
 - You can climb standby! This means that after the first 15 minutes of the reservation time, if there is still capacity in the gym, we'll admit those without reservation in the order they were waiting.
- Will Momentum staff be able to help me with the Kaya app?
 - We will sure try! But those of us who are familiar with the app have not used it in its present function as a competition platform. So, we encourage you to download the app, register for the competition, and familiarize yourself with the app as much as possible before you arrive. Likely if we're helping you, we'll be learning alongside you.
